The Gordon County Historical Society will host the Business After Hours Event on Thursday, 12.7.17 at Oakleigh, which will be decorated for the holiday season by the Sequoyah Garden Club. During the event, guests will enjoy holiday music and a light buffet as well as private tours of the home, which is one of Gordon County's most historic properties.

Oakleigh was used as General Sherman's headquarters during the Civil War. It is now home to the Gordon County Historical Society and is available for private rentals.
