

FACE COVERINGS FAQ

FOR BUSINESSES

Are businesses required to provide face coverings?

Businesses are not required to provide its patrons with face coverings. The business can provide face coverings for free or at a nominal cost if they wish, or ask individuals to leave until they can return with a face covering.

My organization needs face coverings – how can we get them?

If your business needs help locating face coverings please contact the Mayor's Office at mayor@ci.superior.wi.us.

What do I do if someone enters my business without a face covering?

Your business can ask the individual to please put on a face mask, and provide them with the options your business has in place. If your business is supplying face coverings you can provide them with one, or you may ask them to leave until they can return with a face covering. If the individual refuses to leave, you can call the Superior Police Department at 715-395-7234 and they will come enforce the resolution.

If someone tells me they have a health condition, or mental or physical disability that prevents them from wearing a face covering, do I need to ask for documentation?

You do not need to ask for further documentation if an individual informs you they cannot wear a face covering due to a health condition or mental or physical disability. Individuals are not required to provide documentation, and should be left to continue their business.

I own/operate a restaurant or tavern. What does this mean for my business?

If an individual is entering your establishment for the purpose of eating or drinking, they do not have to wear a face covering. If your establishment also has meeting/event space, individuals should wear face coverings if they are not eating or drinking. For example, if a meeting is being hosted at a restaurant in a private room and no food is being served at the meeting individuals should wear a face covering, but if the meeting is serving food then a face covering is not needed.

How is the resolution enforced?

Being in compliance with this resolution is mandatory for businesses to continue to receive economic incentives and to maintain their license with the City of Superior. If a business fails to comply with the resolution, this is grounds for denial, revocation, or rejection of licensure, grants, awards, or other incentives for up to one year from the expiration of this resolution.
