Bethany Lutheran College www.blc.edu

Bethany Lutheran College (BLC) is a private, residential, Christian, coeducational, liberal arts college founding in 1927, owned and operated by the Evangelical Lutheran Synod. The fifty-acre campus of Bethany Lutheran College overlooks the Minnesota River Valley in Mankato, Minnesota, a community of approximately 50,000 people.

Personalized Education: It's a claim many colleges make. Bethany backs it up. What do we mean by personalized education? To start with, you're on a campus with about 540 students. Using recent enrollment data, the average class size was 20 students. The biggest class was 50, the smallest was 2. It doesn't get much more personal than that.
