

2018 Medallion Hunt Bonus Clues Week 6

The medallion still has not been claimed. Therefore, we are printing an additional set of clues. We will try to keep you informed as our lucky explorer comes forward. Happy hunting, and good luck!

Sadly, I haven't been found
Though many are searching around
You're on the right track
So hurry on back
You'll need to dig close to the ground

The intersection of "L"
As many of you know well
The wooden backstop
Where foul balls could drop
East twenty eight steps I dwell

Waiting, I'm all wrapped up tight
Secured in waterproof white
Look, not once, but twice
Amidst snow and ice
Using your keenest eyesight

We hope that these bonus clues
Provide information you'll use
So on the double
Grab your trusty shovel
And hurry on out, or you'll lose!
