From Ben Brown:

I am a life-long resident of Indianapolis and very involved in local organizations and a member of the Greater Lawrence Chamber. As a business person and as past President of the Greater Beech Grove Chamber of Commerce, I understand the need to contain costs in order to be profitable. Office360's No Cost and No Obligation cost analysis can help determine if your company can find cost savings on not only your supplies, hard costs, but also the soft costs.
