

CONTACT: Shannon Rones
VP, Marketing Director
703-871-1325

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: 6/30/2016

Access National Bank's Charles Kapur Named Chair of The Greater Reston Chamber of Commerce and Recipient of the 2016 President's Award

Reston, VA — Reston headquartered Access National Bank is pleased to announce the appointment of Charles Kapur, VP, Client Services Manager, as Chair of the Greater Reston Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors. Mr. Kapur has a longstanding history with the Chamber, having served on its Board since 2011, including leadership positions as Treasurer and Membership Committee Chair. In addition to assuming Board leadership at the annual meeting on June 23, Mr. Kapur received the Chamber's 2016 President's Award for his dedication to economic development in the Reston area.

"I am proud to serve the business community of Reston as Chairman of the Greater Reston Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors," stated Mr. Kapur. Reston is a dynamic area for businesses and individuals to live, work, and play. Our Board of Directors is comprised of business leaders who represent the diversity of our market. We're a community that is rich in history and bold in its vision for the future. I look forward to lending my financial expertise in contributing to Reston's continued prosperity."

Charles Kapur
VP, Client Services Manager
at Access National Bank

Mr. Kapur has served the Northern Virginia market as a community banker for over fifteen years. He is currently a Vice President of the Client Services division of Access National Bank. He is a graduate of George Mason University and a 2013 graduate of the Virginia Bankers Association's School of Bank Management at the University of Virginia. Additional community service involvement includes serving on the board of directors for the Greater Reston Arts Center and the Arts Council of Fairfax County. Mr. Kapur previously served as a director for the Accountants Society of Virginia and is a charter member of the Ashburn Rotary Club and a member of the Leadership Loudoun Class of 2012.

"We are very proud of Charles' appointment to the Reston Chamber Board" stated Mike Clarke, CEO of Access National Bank. "Charles has already demonstrated that he is an asset to the Chamber with his leadership legacy and proven track record in developing business within the Reston community. He brings a great deal of market knowledge and business acumen to further support and develop the expanding economic influence of the Chamber."

Access National Bank was founded in 1999 by professional bankers and business people. It is an independent, nationally chartered bank based in Reston, Virginia that serves the Greater Washington DC Metropolitan area. Access National Bank is a subsidiary of Access National Corporation and trades on the NASDAQ Global Market under the symbol "ANCX". Additional information is available at www.AccessNationalBank.com. Member FDIC.

###