August's Networking Luncheon Featured Jean-Marie Jobs on Work/Life Balance

Jean-Marie Jobs, founder of Yellow Marker, spoke on ways to find balance between work and life by scheduling time for yourself, asking for help and by simply saying no. Her experience ranges from corporate markets in the US to inter-cultural work in Canada, Holland, Africa and the Middle East. If you missed the August Luncheon, be sure to join us for our October Lunch featuring the co-founders of Hip Chick Farms. Jen and Serafina will share their experience in starting and running a start-up business based on transparency, compassion and trust.
