

PROSPECTIVE BOARD MEMBER QUESTIONNAIRE

Serving as a member of the Board of Directors of the Rohnert Park Chamber of Commerce is a rewarding and satisfying task. A Board Member is required to be committed to the Chamber, its staff, fellow board members, the chamber members and the community at large. As a board member, you are driven to the betterment of the local economy and armed with new ideas to help take the Chamber and its members to future success. If selected, you will represent and support the Chamber's goals and objectives.

The following guidelines will be used by the nominating committee in preparing a slate of candidates for the Board of Director's position: Nominee must be a Chamber member in good standing, be 21 years of age or older and be willing to commit to two years. In addition, participation in Chamber programs and events, as well as board meetings, is expected.
