

BOARDMAN CHAMBER

Working for you!

The Boardman Chamber of Commerce is a business and professional membership organization that supports the interests of our members and promotes the building of a strong community.

Your region's business advocate, the Boardman Chamber is as ambitious and diverse as the nearly 200 member businesses, organizations, and individuals we represent.

The Boardman Chamber employs a professional staff to work on behalf of our members. Along with a volunteer Board of Directors, we are dedicated to providing valuable resources and support to strengthen and encourage local businesses. We assist in your efforts to interact with your customers and clients, and operate in a dynamic and challenging economic environment.

"Your Chamber of Commerce...
..preparing the way today
for a successful tomorrow."

- ✓ Advocate – Belonging to the Boardman Chamber gives you a strong voice locally, in Salem, and in Washington, D.C. to influence legislation that affects your business.
- ✓ Business Referrals – The Boardman Chamber recognizes that referrals build your business. Our Membership Directory and website help customers find you 24 hours a day, every day of the year!
- ✓ Credibility – As a member of the Boardman Chamber, you will be recognized by your customers and employees as an active participant in the growth and success of the Boardman area and Morrow County. Your participation demonstrates that you are serious about your business and that you are committed to your community.
- ✓ Information – The Boardman Chamber's monthly newsletter and weekly emails will keep you in touch with your community by reporting on official Chamber business, highlighting upcoming items of interest, introducing new members, and covering community events. The Chamber offers demographic data, community and labor trends analysis, and other valuable resources in order to assist you in developing strategies for the future of your business.
- ✓ Networking – The Boardman Chamber, through the sponsorship of programs and events, will provide you with many opportunities to network with other community and business leaders and to effectively promote your business or organization. In addition, these events provide the Chamber with the opportunity to recognize your accomplishments throughout the year.
