

Abilene Area Chamber of Commerce 91st Annual Banquet Award Nominations

Each year, the Chamber honors community members who have made a difference in our community.

Please nominate an individual or business for the awards listed below.

[] The Quiet Hero Award is presented to an individual who has helped a non-profit organization in the community without fanfare, who has quietly donated their time, talents or financial support to make that entity better.

[] The Volunteer of the Year Award is bestowed upon someone who has selflessly volunteered their time and talents to a business, a non-profit organization or the community throughout the year.

[] The Distinguished Business of the Year Award is a business that has shown organizational growth and success, high standards of excellence, innovation and incorporation of new research and technology, and significant contributions to its industry and the community.

[] The Community Legacy Award recognizes a pioneer in the community, who through the years, has fought, worked, advocated, and produced change through their community service, their voice and their dedication. Through their efforts, this individual has created lasting change and measurable difference in our community.

[] The Ag Advocate of the Year Award [Individual or Business] is conferred to an agricultural entity that has shown organizational growth and success, high standards of excellence, innovation and incorporation of new research and technology, and significant contributions to the agriculture industry and the community. Any for-profit service or product-related agribusiness or farming entity based in the Abilene, KS area is eligible for this award

Nominations will be accepted through February 11, 2019.
