Guest Speakers

Jack Stark

As a performance psychologist, Jack Stark provides psychological and performance enhancement training to elite athletes at the collegiate, professional, and Olympic levels. Jack was the team psychologist for the University of Nebraska football program from 1989-2004, helping the Huskers win 3 National Championships. He is also the author of “The Championship Formula”.

Josh Dotzler

Former Bellevue West and Creighton Basketball star, and now CEO of Abide Leadership, Josh has had a career working to revitalize inner city Omaha. Josh uses his voice to ignite change and inspire individuals on a national and local level. He has served as a lead pastor for over a decade and partners with pastors and leaders from every sector across Omaha to bring change to local communities.

Clester Johnson

Bellevue West graduate Clester Johnson was an all-state quarterback, athlete of the year, and two-time National Champion with the Huskers in 1994 and 1995. Currently a Rare Disease Account Executive at Biogen, a pioneering biotechnology firm, and father of 3 accomplished athletes, Clester knows a thing or two about Grit, Perseverance, and Resilience.
