

PUBLIC POLICY COMMITTEE

The Champaign County Chamber of Commerce Public Policy Committee meets monthly on the first Wednesday of the month and as needed otherwise at 7:30 a.m. This committee will discuss, review and make recommendations to the Board of Directors on possible positions on local/State/Federal public policy. The issues to be reviewed and discussed will be those of interest to the members of Champaign County Chamber of Commerce. To ensure a balanced and fair representation of the Chamber membership, diversity of applicants will be strongly considered.

If you would like to serve, please complete the entire form and return via email to the Chamber's Public Policy Director at GarretH@champaigncounty.org or by fax at 217. 359.1809. Please attach a summary of other political and community activities and involvement you have participated in the past. While this will be important information, it will not be a determining factor.
