

Krystle DaPonte is the President of the Bermuda Human Resource Association (“BHRA”). She leads the Executive Board with their strategic objectives for the year. Over the last 3 years, Krystle has expanded the Executive Board roles, increased the BHRA’s HR body of knowledge through quantitative methods, and strengthened the BHRA’s strategic relationships within the Bermuda community.

Krystle is also the Human Resource Business Partner, Vice President for the Marsh & McLennan Companies (“MMC”) within Bermuda, Barbados and Grand Cayman. Krystle is responsible for providing HR leadership and support to MMC’s Corporate Center functions, while also partnering with and advising various Marsh leaders.

In May 2017, Krystle had the opportunity to speak at the Cayman Islands’ Society of Human Resources Professionals Annual Conference. She discussed the keys steps it takes for HR professionals to successfully transition from a transactional to a transformational HR professional.

Krystle obtained her Master’s Degree in Global Human Resources Management at the University of Liverpool, where she focused on the changing needs and requirements of the employment environment and where the HR Industry can strategically situate itself to not only survive, but flourish.

Krystle received her Bachelor’s Degree in Business Administration from Acadia University.
