

Currently the police chief for the City of Fellsmere, Keith Touchberry has been a police officer in Indian River County since 1989. He served as a Vero Beach officer from 1989 to 2013 until he left as a Captain and second in command to become the police chief in Fellsmere. Chief Touchberry has held numerous assignments throughout his career to prepare him for executive level policing to include patrol, K-9, SWAT, criminal investigations, Accreditation, training, supervision and management.

Chief Touchberry is a member of numerous non-profit and other law enforcement-based organizations. He is the Chairman for the Florida Department of Law Enforcement's Region 11 Training Council and is a past chairman for the Executive Roundtable of IRC and the Opioid Task Force of the Treasure Coast.

Chief Touchberry has a Master's Degree in Criminal Justice from the University of Central Florida and is a graduate of the prestigious Southern Police Institutes Administrative Officers Course. He is also the primary ethics instructor for the Florida Institute of Technology undergraduate level criminal justice program, the IRSC criminal justice leader program, and the Florida Police Chiefs Association.

Chief Touchberry and his wife Kimberly have been married for 29 years and have two children.