

Rich Rosell for Sheriff Biography

Rich Rosell is currently the Police Chief for the Town of Indian River Shores, the former Director of Public Safety for both the Town of Dover, NJ and Township of Springfield, NJ, and a 27 year veteran of the New Jersey State Police, where he held many numerous operational command positions, retiring as a Captain.

He is a nationally recognized expert in Homeland Security, having managed such natural disasters as Hurricanes Katrina, Irene, Matthew, Irma, and Sandy. He has authored several Homeland Security and Antiterrorism strategies, and has published a thesis in the Homeland Security Digital Library in Monterey.

He has a Bachelor's Degree from Thomas Edison State University, a Master's Degree from Seton Hall University, a Master's Degree from the Naval Postgraduate School, and is currently enrolled in Drew University's Doctor of Letters program. He is a published author of several public safety related articles in law enforcement and investigative magazines.

Chief Rosell has extensive experience teaching at the graduate level as an adjunct professor for Seton Hall and Fairleigh Dickinson Universities, as well as decades of police and military training experience.

He is a veteran of the US Marines, the Army National Guard, and the US Army Reserve.