

2020 Leadership IRC Scholarships

Marine Bank & Trust Company Low Income & Minority Scholarship

Criteria: African American, American Indian, Asian/Pacific Islander American, or Hispanic American; Are a citizen, national or legal permanent resident of the United States and Indian River County, Florida; Have demonstrated leadership abilities through participation in community service or other actions; Have completed and submitted this application along with the Leadership program application; and demonstrated need.

New Vision Eye Center Non-Profit Scholarship

For paid full-time employees of 501c organizations located in Indian River County, Florida. Criteria: Documented community involvement; Continued/expanded interest in the non-profit sector with significant accomplishments in career and/or community service; Concern about the future of Indian River County and a personal commitment to help shape its future; Aspirations to continue serving in the non-profit community and to rise in key leadership roles in the community, and in non-profit career.

United Way Sponsored Scholarship Executive Paid Employee

For a full-time executive director/CEO of a 501c organization located in Indian River County, Florida. Criteria: Documented community involvement; Continued/expanded interest in the non-profit sector; Significant achievement or accomplishments in career and/or community service; Sincere concern about the future of Indian River County and a personal commitment to help shape its future; Aspirations to serve on boards, in leadership roles in the community, and in key positions in their state or national professional organization.

Alma Lee Loy Small Business Scholarship

This scholarship provides the opportunity for a small business owner who is a Indian River County Chamber of Commerce member. The business owner must have been in business a minimum of 3-years and cannot be a franchise or part of a chain. Also, needs to have at least two full-time employees.

Trusted Insurance Professionals Women's Community Service Scholarship

This scholarship is intended to nurture the growth of women leaders providing opportunities for them to learn more about all areas of the Indian River County community, reflect on their experiences, and learn from the history and the future plans of the community at large. It is our intent to help inspire confidence and promote empowerment in women leaders as they come to understand the opportunities, challenges and limitations of our community.

Bill Bryant and Associates, Inc. Young Professional Scholarship

This scholarship is intended for a 21-39 year old person who is involved in the Young Professional Network with the Chamber of Commerce. It looks for a young professional who has a desire to contribute and be involved in the community.

Leadership Alumni 100 Fund $500 Scholarship

Applicants demonstrate a need for scholarship assistance to offset full tuition.

Contact Emma White at emmaw@indianriverchamber.com for application(s) or questions concerning a scholarship.