

Welcome to Indian River County, Florida!

Thank you for checking out our relocation information! Indian River County is a beautiful place to live work, raise a family or retire. Our communities of Vero Beach, Sebastian, Fellsmere, Orchid, and Indian River Shores are centrally located on Florida's east coast where the tropics begin. Whether living on the mainland, ranchland, or on the island, the housing opportunities are endless. Our county offers a unique Florida experience that everyone will enjoy.

We know you will take pleasure in countless eco-adventures in our many parks, open spaces, miles of accessible beaches and riverfront. Our area can't be beaten for its variety of cultural opportunities and dozens of quality events. We have excellent medical facilities, a regional airport with commercial service, outstanding public and private schools and opportunities for higher education. And, our shopping and dining choices make Indian River County an outstanding place to call home.

Our county's business community is an integral part of what our residents consider their quality of life. For business relocation, our Chamber provides hands-on assistance to familiarize you with our county and what we have to offer your business.

Our Chamber and visitor center is located in downtown Vero Beach in the southeast corner of Pocahontas Park across from the post office. For many, the Chamber is the first impression of our community. We represent hundreds of business owners and their employees and we have been recognized as one of the Best Large Chambers in Florida for maintaining our performance and quality standards.

Let us know how we might help you - feel free to call us anytime for other information you may need!
