NWT Chamber of Commerce Golf Tournament

with partial proceeds to go to COVID Ingenuity Award

During this unprecedented pandemic, businesses had to adapt extremely quickly without any notice. Many businesses did not know if they had to shut down; if they stayed open, what to do, and more importantly, would customers even come in. Though businesses in the NWT have been more resilient than most in southern Canada, businesses here are hurting. Many will not see “business as usual” for at least another two years.

One of the reasons why business in the NWT has not been as impacted as the south is their creativity and ingenuity to stay open and keep their employees and customers safe and healthy. For that reason, the NWT Chamber has created the COVID Ingenuity Award!

Together with our nomination, we have reached out to each of our Community Chambers to nominate one of their members who they felt was the most creative and resilient in adapting to the swift change of doing business during this pandemic. We will draw from those seven entries for the winner!
