

LYNDY PHILLIPS

Lyndy Phillips was raised on a farm in the Texas Panhandle, served 15 years in full-time ministry, worked 12 years in sales and fundraising, and was an Executive Director for a highly popular television show about marriage. On top of all that, he raised two children, Lezlie and Taylor, with his wife, Angie, of 34 years.

While in college, Lyndy began creating presentations that were funny, entertaining, and motivational by combining speaking and magic. Soon after, he was speaking in schools, churches, and businesses across Texas, New Mexico, and Oklahoma. Today, Lyndy continues to delight audiences across the country with his humorous speaking and comedy magic.

With over 30 years' experience, Lyndy is a seasoned and nationally recognized speaker who makes any event fun, entertaining, and motivational.
