

Mission Statement:

Women in Business provides a forum to foster meaningful connections and partnerships. The group offers learning opportunities while collaborating within the network to strengthen our community.

Vision Statement:

Central Carolina Women in Business unites, educates and supports all women through a platform designed to inspire and empower

Central Carolina Women in Business

- The Central Carolina Women in Business group is a three-chamber initiative (Hillsborough/Orange County Chamber, Chapel Hill-Carrboro Chamber, Alamance Chamber) to engage women across all three chambers and surrounding areas, for professional development and networking opportunities.
- The group offers quarterly luncheons with keynote speakers and free monthly socials.
- Annual membership for the Central Carolina Women in Business group is included in all chamber membership levels. Membership for non-Chamber members is also available at $150 per year. Please contact Vanessa Watson, vwatson@carolinachamber.org or 919.967.7075 for additional information.
