The focus of care at Hospice of the East Bay is to ensure the comfort of every patient during the final stages of life which is achieved by relieving pain, managing symptoms such as anxiety, nausea or shortness of breath, and by offering consistent emotional, practical, and spiritual support. The patient and his or her family select the services that best suit their needs and care is provided according to their wishes. Hospice of the East Bay provides in-home end-of-life services to all medically qualified patients regardless of their insurance status or ability to pay. The Hospice Foundation of the East Bay raises funds from donations, grants, special events, and six thrift shops to ensure that patients' needs are met.
