

Angela Rundles is the owner of Rundles & Associates, a small business specializing in special event fundraising for non-profits of all sizes. Specializing in golf tournaments, Angela's 15 plus years of working knowledge provides groups insights and tips to creating a successful and profitable fundraising event. Current clients include the Oakland A's Baseball Company, Children's Hospital & Research Center and Crowden Music Center.

Angela is very active in her hometown of Martinez, serving on the board of directors of the Boys & Girls Club of the Diablo Valley, lending her time to Chamber on a variety of efforts and most recently taking the lead parent volunteer role on the VIP Card campaign raising funds for the Martinez Unified School District to reinstate one unpaid furlough day to the 2010-2011 calendar.

Angela has lived in Martinez for 12 years, most of these years with her long time partner Don Clowes and his daughter Kylie.
