

Tamara J. Wyre, CIMA[®]
Vice President, Senior Portfolio Manager

Tamara Wyre is a portfolio manager at Hancock Whitney Asset Management responsible for recommending custom asset allocation portfolio return and projected risk solutions; building, leveraging, and maintaining private client and institutional relationships; and creating and delivering presentations to existing and prospective clients. Tamara has been in the investment industry for 20 years, joining Hancock Whitney as part of the acquisition of Capital One Asset Management LLC in 2018. Tamara spent the last 6 years as a Director, Senior Portfolio Manager at Capital One Wealth and Asset Management where she launched an innovative and socially responsible US All Cap investment solution inspired by the work of the UN Global Compact and UN Women which allows investors to support their social goals alongside their financial goals by investing in companies that demonstrate inclusive and commendable practices around both gender and equality. Prior to joining Capital One, Tamara was a Director, Portfolio Relationship Manager with U.S. Trust, Bank of America Private Wealth Management in Atlanta, GA, responsible for managing a team of portfolio managers in the NE and investment portfolios of the Private Bank. Tamara has a Bachelor of Science in Accounting from Hampton University College, MBA from Tulane University and holds a Certified Investment Management Analyst (CIMA[®]) Certification from University of California, Berkeley.

Tamara actively serves on several boards and committees with education and economic empowerment at the forefront including Young Audiences of Louisiana, Dress For Success New Orleans, Café Reconcile and more. She actively promotes and facilitates financial literacy programs for both youth and adults. Ms. Wyre was selected by Money Management Executives for its “Top Women in Asset Management” Award in 2016.

Marguerite “Rite” Moisio
Vice President, Private Banker

Marguerite “Rite” Moisio joined Hancock Whitney in 2013. In her role as a private banker in Hancock Whitney’s wealth management division, Marguerite focuses on financial planning, investments and specialized lending. She has nearly 20 years of experience in the financial services and commercial banking industries. Prior to Hancock Whitney, she was a vice president and private banker at JP Morgan. Rite began her career in New York City in asset management with Sanford Bernstein. During her time in NYC, She also served on the board of Vertex Chemical Corporation, helping the family-owned business with strategic planning. She has a BA from Middlebury College and an MBA from NYU Stern School of Business.

Rite has lived in NOLA since 2011. She is the President of the board of Young Audiences of Louisiana, and Vice President of the Board of Project Lazarus. Rite is also a member of the Women's Professional Council. She was a founding member of the Stern Women's Alumni Association and served as a board member for the National Council for Research on Women.

John H. Scott, CExP™

Vice President, Wealth Advisor

John Scott is the Wealth Advisor at Hancock Whitney Bank, where he is responsible for the financial planning, retirement planning, and business Exit planning for the bank's high-net-worth clients and business owners across the greater New Orleans area. John has been in the financial services industry for over 14 years, developing a vast knowledge of investment management, insurance strategies, and comprehensive financial planning. Prior to joining Hancock Whitney, he spent 12 years working as a Wealth Management Advisor for Consolidated Planning, Inc., one of the premier financial planning firms in the Southeast where he was also a mentor and trainer for new advisors. John has a Bachelor's of Arts in Economics from Vanderbilt University and is one of only a couple hundred financial professionals in the country who hold the Certified Exit Planner (CExP™) designation.

Rachel L. Nunez

Vice President, Commercial Banking

A Southeast Louisiana native, Rachel Nunez began working in the banking industry in 2001 and has over 18 years of experience in consumer, investment, business and commercial banking. Rachel joined the Hancock Whitney Bank Commercial Team as Vice President, where she serves as a trusted advisor to commercial clients delivering comprehensive and customized solutions tailored to their financial needs. Rachel served as President of the American Business Women's Association Crescent City Connections Express Network after the organization chartered in October 2014. She was instrumental in startup of this chapter. Rachel was named ABWA's "Woman of the Year" in March 2016 and was recognized at the ABWA National Convention in October 2016. Rachel was recognized as New Orleans City Business 2016 Top 50 Women of the Year and again for 2019. Rachel also currently serves on the Boards of NORLI, Chair of Women of NORLI, Metro Centers for Community Advocacy, the New Orleans Ballet Association, St. Bernard Economic Development Foundation, and St. Bernard Chamber of Commerce. She's a member of the Women's Healthcare Executive Network. Inspired by economic development and growing community, Rachel excitedly accepted the appointment of Commissioner of St. Bernard Port & Harbor Terminal by Governor John Bel Edwards in January 2019, endorsed by Senator Sharon Hewitt. When not working or serving her community through various organizations, Rachel enjoys training for marathons and triathlons. She believes in the importance of continuously pushing the boundaries of comfort, both personally and professionally- "If it doesn't challenge you, it doesn't change you."