“LSMV has been a tremendous benefit for me, both personally and professionally. Learning about our community has been an eye-opening experience; we have many needs and benefits that I was not aware of. Being a class member has opened doors and provided me with new clients and life-long friends” Donna Polizzi, President, Keys to the Coast.

LSMV is an 11-month leadership program designed to foster and create future community leaders. The program allows participants to increase their understanding of local issues, challenges, and solutions while expanding their personal and professional networks and refining their leadership skills. Each Class gives back to the community with their own unique Legacy Project. Founded in 1995, LSMV has over 385 graduates serving in a variety of leadership roles in the government, service and business sectors today.

“LSMV has been an amazing eye-opener and a great wealth of information and an absolute joy to meet an entire group of great new friends! I cannot express the wonderful opportunity that this has been to learn so much more about my community and the services that we provide in our area. I HIGHLY recommend this class to other leaders in the community”. Karen Gridiron, Director of Sales, Radisson Hotel

Students engage and interact with community and civic leaders in areas of Military/Aerospace, Arts and Recreation, Public Safety and Justice, Youth and Education, Health and Human Services, Business and Economic Development, Government, Sustainability and Natural Resources, and Agriculture. The unique mix of monthly day-long seminars and small class atmosphere give participants an unprecedented opportunity to learn about the issues facing their community and to engage with civic leaders.

“LSMV not only allowed me to expand my network and gain new friendships, but also increased my knowledge of the history and offerings of our generous community. I’ve been able to recognize my strengths and weaknesses, while further developing my skills to become a leader with a vision that inspires and motivates people to achieve personal and professional success”. Lacy Litten, Class of 2018, Innovative Produce

"This Leadership program has been a great experience for me. I joined leadership to learn more about the Santa Maria Valley, which I did.
