Thanks to Steve McAdams at Harry Buffalo who presented everyone attending a fantastic menu with wonderful food choices which we all enjoyed. The patio area belonged to our Mayfield Chamber and our speaker, Will Burge, who kept the crowd going with everything about the Cavs, the Indians, the Browns, and the Gladiators. (Wish the outcome of the scores could have been positive). Look in this newsletter when we will be back at Harry Buffalo for another After Hours on September 23rd.

Mission Statement: To promote the growth of businesses in our communities and invest in programs that support our community development.

From the Executive Director

Jim Spring

With Labor Day behind us and we begin thinking about Fall and the things we need to do. One of the items I want to bring to your attention is the "Our Town and all Around" books that we sell as a fund raiser for the chamber. The chamber makes $ 11.00 on each book we sell. Just using the book one or two times it pays for itself. They make great gifts and each year they add new discounts on dining, (fine dining, midday dining, casual dining and fast food and carry out) Ohio wineries, and leisure time activities.

The Drake Re-Grand Opening Event: Wednesday 9/10/2014 3:00 to 7:00pm

Kia Crooms, Property Manager, Morgan Management, LLC is inviting all MACC members to attend the Re-Grand Opening event on Septemebr 10th at The Drake (formerly The Marsol), with ribbon cutting at 3:30pm. Please mark your calendar and celebrate with Kia and her staff. The address is 6503 Marsol Rd., Mayfield Heights.
