

In Partnership with the Brea Olinda High School Golf Program

2018 Season: "Both the Girls and Boys Brea Olinda High School golf teams took 2nd place in their respective leagues for the 2017-2018 season. For the Girls', senior Abbie Claire Boozer was North Hills League Champion and for the Boys', Senior Ethan Han was Crestview League Champion." -Coach Nancy Smith

Brea Olinda High School boys and girls golf program offers opportunities to students to develop leadership skills, sportsmanship, and ethics as a life-long skill, while developing a strong command of the game of golf.

Community Benefits

Participation in the golf tournament will directly benefit local education efforts, as a portion of proceeds will go to the Brea Olinda High School Boys/Girls Golf teams. The Brea Chamber believes strongly in creating an educated workforce that can benefit the local business community for decades to come.

In-Kind Donation

Promote your business by donating items of value for the opportunity drawing and gift bags. The opportunity drawing offers prime exposure and visibility to Brea's most influential business leaders. Gift bags will be handed out to every player at check-in. Contact the Brea Chamber at (714) 529-3660 for more information.
