A great way to show your support of over 6,000 active military and reservist families who live and work in Middle Georgia!

The Perry Military Affairs Committee is proud to offer a Military Discount program for Chamber members. Offering a Military Discount honors those who serve our great nation while promoting your business. As a participant in the Military Discount Program, your business will receive a special decal for placement in your store front and an electronic logo for use on your company's website and social media outlets. Your business logo will also be included on the Chamber's website listing of Military Discounts.
