

AFTERBURNER™

Accelerating Performance Through Flawless Execution

Presented by:  Gallup
McKinley County
Chamber of Commerce

Afterburner is a group of former elite military professionals turned business consultants and speakers that relate their experiences and stories to your business challenges.

Their dynamic, high-energy experiential learning program will inspire your team to immediately apply what they've learned into their daily work lives – so they can break down silos, drive accountability and accelerate team performance in the midst of changing environments and task saturation.

With 20 years' experience in business coaching and consulting with Fortune 500 businesses and global organizations, Afterburner keynotes will let you in on the secrets used by elite military aviators, Navy SEALs, and Army Rangers to thrive and succeed in agile, high-stakes environments.

This highly interactive day will equip your team with the skills to use a military model of mission completion to achieve 'Flawless Execution' in your business.
