1. How has this company changed our community?

2. How has this company distinguished themselves from other businesses in the community?

3. How has this company shown leadership abilities to motivate their employees to benefit the community?

4. How has the company made a significant positive impact in the community?

5. List any additional factors in support of the company.

Feel free to attach one additional page either as an introduction letter on why you are nominating this business or to expand on these five questions. Remember, members of the selection committee may not know who this company is you are recommending or how they have enhanced our community with the work they have done. You will need to be detailed with your nomination.

All nomination forms must be either dropped off to our Chamber office at 401 Wilton Road in Peterborough or emailed to us by February 26th, 2016 by 12noon. If you have any questions please call our office at 603-924-7234 or email staff@peterboroughchamber.com
