ABEX 2017 Finalists Announced

The finalists for the 2017 ABEX Awards are here! The ABEX Awards celebrate Saskatchewan business excellence, and we are pleased to announce the outstanding Saskatchewan businesses that will be recognized at this year's ABEX Awards, presented by Conexus Credit Union, on October 21st at TCU Place in Saskatoon.

"Here at the Saskatchewan Chamber of Commerce, we feel privileged to have the opportunity to honour Saskatchewan business excellence, and this year we have much to celebrate" said Steve McLellan, CEO of the Saskatchewan Chamber of Commerce.

After a rigorous adjudication process, 50 finalists out of 82 nominee applications were selected for their excellent business strategies in 9 categories. The finalists were judged on their application and supporting documents, with particular attention paid to unique business achievements, as well as a Safety Plan. The Workers Compensation Board is a proud Safety Partner for the ABEX Awards and all applicants are required to present their safety plan.

"The judging process is based on an evaluation system that provides opportunities for small and large businesses to compete on an equal footing," said McLellan.

In the Community Involvement Award category, sponsored by Cogent Chartered Professional Accountants LLP, the finalists are: Central Plains Co-operative Ltd, Lloydminster & District Co-operative Ltd., The Deveraux Group of Companies, S & E Trusted Online Directories, Wyant Group and YPH Mechanical.

In the Export Award category, sponsored by Saskatchewan Trade and Export Partnership, the finalists are: O&T Farms Ltd., Solido Design Automation, Three Farmers Products, Vendasta and Viterra Inc.
