ABUNDANT GRACE

Eldridge "El" J. Broussard, III has experienced Abundant Grace! From a ward of Oregon’s foster care system, its juvenile justice system and ultimately, the Oregon state correctional system to becoming a well respected community and business leader, El now shares his amazing transformative story around the world and has released his first book, The Challenge to Change – Owning Who You Are. All around us, our family, friends and work associates need to recognize that God is actively working in our lives to bring us closer to Him, make us more like Him and to live fully in His Abundant Grace! So, invite them to join us and live in Abundant Grace!
