Thursday, January 24 - Opening Reception & Photography Exhibit: $15 per person -

From 5:30 – 7:30P Help us kick off the weekend in the Grandview Room at the Douglas County Community & Senior Center on Waterloo Lane. The event features the work of area wildlife photographers and there is an expected visit from several falconers and their birds for up close viewing. Have a glass of wine and an hors d'oeuvres or two while you meet fellow enthusiasts.

Friday, January 25 – Wetlands Tour by Birding Under Nevada Skies (BUNS): $50 per person -

Tour time is 8:00 AM-11:00 AM. The IVGID wetlands area is a hidden treasure of Carson Valley featuring large numbers of water fowl and migrant birds. A short hike on level ground is part of this tour. As in all the tours, spotting scopes, binoculars and/or cameras are recommended. Tour is limited to 18 participants-transportation is by mini bus.

Friday, January 25 – Raptor Highway and Byway Tour by Birding Under Nevada Skies: $50 per person -

Tour time is 1:30 PM-4:30 PM. Supplemental tour for those interested in the Buteos, Accipiters, Falcons and other birds which commonly winter in Carson Valley. As in all the tours, spotting scopes, binoculars and/or cameras are recommended. Tour is limited to 18 participants-transportation is by mini bus.

Friday, January 25– Eagles & Agriculture Falconers’ Dinner: $45 per person - From 5:30 PM to 8:30 PM. We’re finalizing our Ag speaker and a number of area falconers and their birds are scheduled to join us as well. Of course, the great dinner provided by Carson Valley Inn doesn’t hurt, and there’s exhibits from conservation minded organizations and businesses for attendees along with a raffle.

Saturday, January 26 – Chartered Bus Eagle/Ranch Tour & Luncheon: $70 per person - Tour time is approximately 8:00 AM to 11:30 AM and the Luncheon follows until 1:00P. Luxury motor coaches take participants on a private “behind the scenes” group tour of area ranches. Learn about Carson Valley ranching, conservation and have an opportunity to view/photograph eagles, hawks, owls and other birds of prey. The luncheon this year returns to a bountiful buffet with choices for everyone and is a great opportunity to mingle with other participants to discuss and share your experiences/sightings.

Saturday, January 26 – Ins and Outs of Ranching: $50 per person – Tour time is 1:30PM to 4:30PM. Visit the Comstock Seed Company Ranch where they have evolved to become specialists in native seed cultivation. Their seeds are used throughout the West to match growth to all sorts of native conditions. Tour is limited to 18 participants-transportation is by mini bus.

Saturday, January 26– Owl Prowl & Live Bird Field Demonstration: $50 per person - Tour time is 1:30 PM to 4:30 PM. Visit historic barns on area ranches and view owl habitat. Weather permitting one of our local falconers will provide a demonstration of the sport of falconry. Tour is limited to 45 participants.

Saturday, January 26 & Sunday, January 27 – Photo Workshop: $70 per person Saturday evening classroom seminar taught by long time Northern Nevada instructor Craig Moore from 6:00 PM to 9:00 PM; Sunday from 7:00 to 10:00 AM you will be outdoors in the Carson Valley to photograph area wildlife/scenery under the tutelage of Carson Valley wildlife photographer John Humphrey. The workshop will be held at Holiday Inn Express & Suites on Saturday and the group will be transported by mini bus for the field work on Sunday morning, also leaving from the Holiday Inn Express & Suites.

Sunday, January 27 – Guided Hike of River Fork Ranch: $35 per person- Tour time is 8:00 A to 11:30A. Jim Woods of Birding Under Nevada Skies and members of the Carson Valley Trails Association will serve as guides for this hike along the Carson River at the Nature Conservancy’s River Fork Ranch to view habitat of deer, beaver, ducks, geese, fish, pond turtles and all sorts of bird types. An easy hike of four miles suitable for families and kids. Tour is limited to 15 participants-transportation is by mini bus.
