2 Day Visit to the Deep Creek area in Garrett County, Maryland
September 8-10, 2017

DEEP CREEK AREA ART & WINE WEEKEND

(Day 1) Friday Evening:

Check into one of our area hotel lodging options. Settle in to your room, unpack and rest until dinner. Dine either on-site or at one of our favorite local eateries featuring everything from New York style pizza to steak and seafood.

(Day 2) Saturday:

Begin your morning with a hearty breakfast before heading out for the day.

Head to the historic town of Oakland for a visit at our local museums including the Oakland B&O Museum, a beautifully restored Queen Anne style station as well as the Transportation Museum featuring two levels of regional motorized and non-motorized modes of transportation including a local carriage used at the historic Deer Park Hotel.

As lunchtime arrives, you will make your way to the Deep Creek Lake Art & Wine Festival at the Garrett County Fairgrounds. Here you will sample delicious wines, peruse area artist's works and have the chance to buy your favorite piece. Yummy food options are available on-site.

End your day with an evening dinner followed by entertainment at your hotel such as Appalachian music on native instruments such as the hammer and dulcimer.

(Day 3) Sunday:

Your final day in Garrett County begins with breakfast at the hotel and then tour the northern end of the county, continuing on to home.

- Your first stop will be at the new High Country Creamery & Market to see how local cow cheeses are produced along with some tasty samples! The crabby curds are a Maryland favorite!
- Next, head to the Historic National Road, now known as Rt. 40 just outside of Grantsville. Enjoy visiting the Casselman River Bridge
- Enjoy special shopping at the local shops including Grant's Mercantile, Gourmet shop and Penn Alps craft shop. You may even find a local artisan working on their craft in the artisan village.
- After a light lunch and before departing for home, stop at Hill-Top Market for a sweet treat to take home from Candyland.
