4.12 Regular meetings of the Members (“Membership Meetings”) may be held at such time and such place as shall, from time-to-time by resolution, be determined by the Board of Directors. Special Membership Meetings may be called by the President, the Executive Director, three Directors, or a group of Members representing not less than one-tenth (1/10) of the Members having voting rights no less than ten (10) business days prior to the meeting date.

4.13 Except as otherwise provided herein, Membership Meetings may be held at such place as may be stated in the notice of the meeting or the waiver thereof.

If a quorum is not present at any meeting of the Members, a majority of the Members present may adjourn the meeting from time-to-time without further notice. If authorized in advance by the Board of Directors, a Member shall be considered ‘present in person’ if said Member is in real-time communication with the meeting via a telephone conference call, video conference call, or other media.

4.17 The Board of Directors may, by resolution, submit matters to the Membership by mail and/or electronic mail to conduct such elections, polls, surveys, and resolutions, in such a manner, by mail and/or electronic mail, as the Board of Directors shall determine in said resolution.

4.18 Whether a Member be a corporation, partnership, firm, association, proprietorship, trust, or any other entity, the vote of a Member may be cast at any meeting, regular or special, by the designated person who is a part of the Member's organization, or by any other person who is authorized pursuant to the Corporation's Proxy Voting Procedures to represent the Member at the meeting. A person who is part of the Member's organization by virtue of employment, ownership, officership, or other similar agency, shall be referred to herein as an "Associate Member".

ARTICLE V BOARD OF DIRECTORS

5.01 The business affairs and property of the Corporation shall be managed and controlled by the board of directors as the term is used in Section 108.05(a) of the NFPC Act (the "Board of Directors"). All members of the Board of Directors (individually a "Director" and collectively "Directors") must be residents of the State of Illinois. Additionally, all Directors must be a Member or an Associate Member at the time said person becomes a Director. It shall be a duty of every Director to timely disclose a cessation of being a Member, or, in the case of an Associate Member Director, of a disaffiliation with the Member under which the Associate Member was affiliated. In the event a Director ceases to be a Member, or in the case of an Associate Member who is a Director, in the event said Director disaffiliates with said Member such that said Director is no longer an Associate Member, said Director shall be entitled to remain as a Director for three months without becoming a Member or becoming an Associate Member via a new affiliation with another Member. In the event said Director fails to become a Member or affiliate with a Member to become an Associate Member within said three month period, the Director shall be the subject of a retention vote of the remaining Directors at the first Board Meeting after the three month period has expired. The retention vote shall be a simple majority of the remaining Directors, although the criteria for said vote shall be whether said Director is of such great value to the Board that the remaining Directors have concluded that it would be materially detrimental to the Corporation if said Director is not retained for the remainder of his or her term despite the lack of being a Member or Associate Member.

5.02 With the adoption of these revised Bylaws the next election of the Board of Directors shall institute a staggered term of office system whereby the Nominating Committee shall nominate half of the Board of Directors positions for one year terms and half shall be for two year terms. Each successive election shall elect persons to fill the expiring two year terms. In the event there is an even number of Directors and an additional Director is being added in accordance with these Bylaws, the Board shall have the option of offering a one year term or a two year two for the new Director so as to best balance the staggering of terms in the discretion of the Board.

5.03 No individual shall serve as a voting member of the Board of Directors more than five (5) consecutive years. The Immediate Past President shall serve one year after his or her term as President in a non-elective position with all rights and privileges of being a Director. The five consecutive year term limitation for Directors is extended to seven years for a Director who has served consecutive terms as President and immediate past President.

5.04 The number of Board of Directors shall not be less than eleven (11). The entire Board of Directors shall consist of the President, President-Elect, Immediate Past President, Secretary, Treasurer, Executive Director (ex officio), Legal Counsel (ex officio), and no fewer than four (4) and no more than nine (9) Directors-At-Large as may be recommended by the Nominating Committee. No Director shall hold more than one (1) office at the same time. The number of members of the Board of Directors may be increased or decreased from time-to-time by amendment of these Bylaws, but no decrease in the number of members of the Board of Directors shall have the effect of shortening the term of any incumbent Director. The Chair may appoint with the approval of the Board of Directors additional non-voting members to sit on the Board of Directors as determined from time to time as advisors or liaisons.

5.05 If the number of Board of Directors is increased, said increase must designate the term length of the newly created position. The newly-created Directorship(s) resulting from the increase in the authorized number of Board of Directors may be filled by the majority of the Board of Directors then in office, though less than a quorum, and the Board of Directors so chosen shall hold office until their successors shall be duly-elected and shall qualify.

5.06 In case of any vacancies in the Board of Directors through death, resignation, disqualification, removal, or any other cause, the vacancies thus created may be filled by the President, subject to the approval of a majority of the Board of Directors present at an official Board Meeting, though less than a quorum, and the Board of Directors so chosen shall hold office until their successors shall be duly-elected and shall qualify. In the event a vacancy is created by the death, resignation, disqualification, removal, or any other cause of the President, the vacancy shall be filled by the President-Elect and if the President-Elect is unable or unwilling to succeed to the Presidency at the next Board Meeting, then the vacancy shall be filled by the vote of the remaining members of the Board of Directors present at an official Board Meeting, though less than a quorum, and the President so chosen shall hold office until his or her successor shall be duly-elected and shall qualify.

5.07 Any Director may resign at any time by giving written notice to the Board of Directors, the President, or the Secretary of the Corporation. Such resignation shall take effect at the time specified therein, then upon receipt of such notice by the addressee, and unless otherwise provided therein, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

5.08 Any Director may be removed from office, for good cause shown, upon the affirmative vote of two-thirds (2/3) of the remaining Directors (excluding for purposes of calculating the vote, the said Director) at any special Board Meeting (a “Special Board Meeting”), provided that notice of the intention to act upon such matters shall have been given in the notice calling such meeting, or the waiver of such notice.

5.09 When any Director is absent from three (3) consecutive regularly scheduled Board Meetings, his or her Directorship may be terminated upon the affirmative vote of two-thirds (2/3) of the remaining Directors.

5.10 In addition to the power and authority expressly conferred upon the Board of Directors by the laws of the State of Illinois, by the Articles of Incorporation, or other certificate filed pursuant to or otherwise applicable by law, and by these Bylaws, the Board of Directors may exercise all of the powers of the Corporation and do all such lawful things and acts as may be done by the Corporation.

5.11 At all Board Meetings, a simple majority of the voting Board of Directors (herein a “Quorum”), must be present in person to commence the meeting. A Director shall be considered “present in person” if said Director is in real-time communication with the Board Meeting via a telephone conference call, video conference call, or other media duly-authorized in advance. The act of a majority of the Board of Directors present at any Board Meeting shall be the act of the Board of Directors, unless a greater number is otherwise required by these Bylaws, or by Illinois law. If at any Board Meeting there shall be less than a Quorum present, a majority of those present may adjourn the meeting from time to time until a Quorum is obtained. Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, General Counsel shall be considered a Voting Member of the Board of Directors for Quorum purposes only, so long as General Counsel is also a Member or Associate Member.

5.12 The Board of Directors may not act via proxy pursuant to Section 108 of the NFPC Act.

5.13 The annual Board Meeting for the election of Officers and the transaction of such other business as may come before it, shall be held at the office of the Corporation, unless otherwise determined by the Board of Directors within thirty (30) days after the Annual Membership Meeting.

5.14 Regular Board Meetings may be held at such times and places as shall, from time-to-time by resolution, be determined by the Board of Directors. Special Board Meetings may be held when called by the President, President-Elect, Secretary, Executive Director, or any three (3) Directors.

5.15 Except as otherwise provided herein, the Board Meetings may be held at such place as may be stated in the notice of the meeting or the meeting waived thereof.

5.16 Notice of the time and place of each Board Meeting, whether it be regular or special, annual or otherwise, may be delivered to the Board of Directors at least seven (7) days before such meeting. Nothing contained in this paragraph shall prevent the Board of Directors from waiving the notice requirement, as to the time or place of meeting.

5.17 At Board Meetings, business shall be transacted in order as from time-to-time the Board of Directors may determine.

5.18 Directors shall not receive any stated compensation for their services as Directors, but the Board of Directors may, by resolution, authorize reimbursement of expenses incurred in the performance of their duties. Such authorization may prescribe procedures for approval of payment of such expenses. Nothing contained herein shall preclude a Director from serving the Corporation in any other capacity and receiving reasonable compensation for such services and/or products.

5.19 Any action required by law to be taken at a Board Meeting, or any action which may be taken at a Board Meeting, may be taken without a meeting if a consent, in writing, setting forth the actions so taken, shall be signed by a majority of the Directors then in office.

5.20 A Director shall not be personally liable for his or her acts taken in his or her capacity as a Director, and pursuant to the NFPC Act, shall be excused from liability for any such actions, to the fullest extent permitted by the NFPC Act. Furthermore, to the fullest extent permitted by the NFPC Act, each Officer and/or Director shall, in the discharge of any duty imposed or power conferred upon him or her by the Corporation, be fully-protected if, in the exercise of ordinary care, he or she acted in good faith, and/or acted in reliance upon the written opinion of an attorney for the Corporation, the books of account or reports made to the Corporation by any of its Officials, or by any independent certified public accountant or an appraiser selected with reasonable care by the Board of Directors, or by such committee, or in reliance upon other records of the Corporation.

5.21 Each Director and Officer of the Corporation shall be indemnified by the Corporation against all expenses actually and necessarily incurred by him or her in connection with the defense of any claim, action, suit, or proceeding, commenced after the date of the adoption of this Bylaw, in which he or she is made a party by reason of him or her being or having been a Director or Officer of the Corporation, except in relation to the matters as to which he or she shall be adjudged in an action, suit, or proceeding, to be liable for gross negligence or intentional misconduct in the performance of his or her duty as such Director or Officer. The indemnification granted hereunder shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which such Director or Officer may be entitled under any Bylaw, agreement, or law, in equity or otherwise.

5.22 The Board of Directors shall utilize the services of General Counsel. The General Counsel will be an ex officio member, without voting right, of the Board of Directors, and all committees, associated organizations and subsidiaries.

ARTICLE VI OFFICER

6.01 The Officers of the Corporation shall be chosen by the Board of Directors. The Officers shall be a President, President-Elect, Secretary, and Treasurer. No person may hold more than one office at a time.

6.02 The Board of Directors may appoint such other Officers, agents, and factors as it shall deem necessary.

6.03 The Officers of the Corporation shall be elected by the Board of Directors at the Annual Membership Meeting. If the election of Officers shall not be held at such meeting, such election shall be held as soon thereafter as conveniently possible.
