Dedicated to education and conservation

The Card Wildlife Education Center is an educational resource provided by Ferris' College of Arts and Sciences, dedicated to wildlife conservation and management, outdoor education and humanitarian services. Visitors have the opportunity to observe and interact with wild animal specimens from every continent.

The center offers school and group tours, classroom-based exercises, and outreach programs that focus on ecology, animal behavior and the environment. Your visit is an excellent opportunity to observe animals up close and to learn how you can impact nature and wildlife worldwide.

Hours of operation: 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday – Friday
(September – April) 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. Saturday

Summer hours may vary when classes are not in session. Please call in advance of your visit at these times or for wayfinding assistance: (231) 591-5387.

Admission is free.
