

John D. Bunzel
Certified Financial Planner
Morgan Stanley

A graduate of The Juilliard School, Mr. Bunzel has worked in the entertainment industry for over 30 years as a screenwriter, film executive, and as an award-winning playwright, with productions at such notable venues as the Manhattan Theatre Club, Pasadena Playhouse, and Odyssey Theatre in Los Angeles. In 2004, he began working in wealth management, focusing on entertainment clients, and has worked for Morgan Stanley since early 2009.

A Certified Financial Planner, Mr. Bunzel and his wife Florie, a successful costume designer, are the proud parents of two children, Jordan and Maggie. In addition to his position at Morgan Stanley and Board role at VICA, Mr. Bunzel is a former Trustee at The Wesley School, a K-8 independent school located in North Hollywood, California, a Trustee of The Franklin Cole Foundation, a former board member for The Unusual Suspects Theater Company, former board chair for the C5 Youth Foundation of Southern California (formerly Camp Coca-Cola), current Board member for Camp Nor'wester, a summer camp located in Washington State, and current board chair for New Horizons, a Los Angeles-based organization serving individuals with special needs.