

Sandra S. Corral, Esq.
Administration and Compliance Attorney
Pacific Federal, LLC

Sandra S. Corral serves as an administration and compliance attorney at Pacific Federal, LLC (PacFed), one of California's leading privately owned employee benefit firms. In this role, she currently oversees several multi-employer health and welfare trust funds at PacFed.

Prior to joining PacFed, Corral worked in law enforcement for the U.S. Department of Labor's Employee Benefits Security Administration. She also assisted in the civil and criminal prosecution of Employee Retirement Income Security Act violations and related state and federal statutes. Corral also previously maintained a private civil law practice and specialized in consumer protection law, business and commercial litigation.

Corral is a contributing member of the Professional Fiduciary Association of California; pro bono volunteer at Bet Tzedek Legal Services in Los Angeles, Calif.; and also a member of the ERISA and Employee Benefits Bar Association and International Association for Human Resource Information Management.
