

Ron Silverman

Chief Development and Marketing Director
New Horizons

Ron Silverman brings over thirty years of experience to his role as Chief Development and Marketing Officer at New Horizons. Highlights of his career include senior level positions in a variety of not for profit organizations including; Executive Director for the LA Division of the March of Dimes., Vice President of Development and Communications for the Easter Seal Society, Executive Director of the LA Region of The American Cancer Society, Executive Director of the Sierra Club's Angeles Chapter, and most recently as the Vice President of Development for the Trevor Project. Ron, a native of Boston Massachusetts has been a resident on Southern California for 40 years.