

THE BEVERLY GARLAND

Scott A. Mills
General Manager

As a second-generation hotelier and with more than 25 years of hospitality experience, General Manager Scott Mills brings a vast resume of hotel and restaurant management and deep roots in the Los Angeles area to The Beverly Garland. In this role, Mills will lead the re-brand to The Garland and $20 million dollar renovation of the iconic North Hollywood hotel, which is set to debut summer 2014.

Mills' impressive resume in the hospitality industry makes him an asset to The Beverly Garland team. Throughout his experience in the industry, from directing food and beverage concepts to managing general operations and guest experiences, Mills has successfully overseen numerous hotel and restaurant launches, re-openings, renovations and complete rebrands.

Mills' career began shortly after he graduated with a Bachelor of Science Degree in Hotel Administration from the William F. Harrah College at University of Nevada, Las Vegas. His first hotel management position was at the marquee Four Seasons Hotel Los Angeles at Beverly Hills, where he held numerous leadership roles that lead to nearly eleven years of promotions at four properties in the Four Seasons brand.

Since then, Mills has been at the forefront of several hospitality operations including his role as assistant director of food and beverage at the Four Seasons Resort and Club in Dallas and at the The Beverly Wilshire, a Four Seasons Hotel, where he re-launched the property's signature restaurant, THE Blvd. As opening director of food and beverage at the Four Seasons Hotel Silicon Valley, the brand's first boutique-styled property launch, Mills was responsible for the launch of local favorite Quattro Restaurant and Bar.

Later, Mills worked as general manager at the iconic boutique Avalon Beverly Hills, a Viceroy Hotel, where he was responsible for the re-concept and launch of the property's Oliverio restaurant, which replaced the former blue on blue concept. Mills also spearheaded the complete renovation and re-positioning of the Chamberlain West Hollywood, a Viceroy Hotel, in Los Angeles and was most recently vice president of hospitality operations for The Siegel Group in Las Vegas, which included managing all aspects of the group's portfolio of four hotels and the corporate office.

Mills' impressive resume and relevant experience in the hospitality industry as well as the Los Angeles market, makes him a strong asset to the operations, sales and marketing, revenue management and food and beverage departments at The Beverly Garland.
