

Mariam “Mary” Bedrosian-Valencia:

Mary is the Regional Government Affairs Manager for the Western Region of OUTFRONT Media (formerly CBS Outdoor). She is responsible for government affairs activities for the OUTFRONT system within the states of California, Colorado, Nevada, Oregon & Washington.

Mary assists in implementing the OUTFRONT plan focused around state and local issues but more specifically applies her talents to achieving local government results that are favorable to the OUTFRONT system. Mary works in numerous jurisdictions and oversees both legislative consultants and trade associations.

Mary has extensive experience in the government relations arena in both the public and private sectors. Prior to joining OUTFRONT, she worked for McDonald’s as West Division Manager of Global Government and Public Affairs, as well as Fox Entertainment Group as Manager of State & Local Government Affairs. Mary has also served in the administrations of a California State Attorney General, a Speaker of the California State Assembly, and a member of the Los Angeles City Council.

Mary holds a B.A. in political science, as well as a J.D.

Mary is a political enthusiast and enjoys all things that involve her family, most importantly traveling.
