

Steve Lew
Retired

Steve Lew retired from Universal Studios on December 31, 2000 ending a career with MCA/Universal spanning over 25 years in executive and senior management positions In Yosemite National Park, Universal City, California and Orlando, Florida. Prior to joining MCA/Universal, Steve held senior management positions in the hotel/hospitality business. Born and raised in the hotel business and living in hotels owned by his family and managed by his father, Steve began his hotel career working for his dad at the age of 10.

In 1999, prior to retiring, Steve and his wife, Janet moved to Santa Barbara where they continue to reside. He has been and continues to be active in the local non-profit community, serving on and Chairing the Foundation for Santa Barbara City College and Visiting Nurse and Hospice Care, and also serving as a Board Member of the Central Coast Alzheimer's Association. Janet is involved with Visiting Nurse and Hospice Care and Braille Institute.

Janet and Steve have five grown children and seven grandchildren, love to travel, read, enjoy movies and dine out, spending time with family and friends and staying fit and healthy. Steve enjoys playing bridge and most sports including playing computer fantasy baseball.