

Deidre M. Dyer is currently Deputy Supervisor of the Financial Crimes and Public Corruption Unit of the Special Prosecutions Bureau. In that role, she oversees the prosecutions of complex financial crimes like mortgage fraud, money laundering and bribery. She also prosecutes corruption cases involving official misconduct or theft of government funds. She founded the Benefit Fraud and Synthetic Identity Committees for the Cook County Regional Organized Crime Task Force and regularly presents trainings to the public on how to avoid common financial fraud schemes. She is a former Illinois Assistant Attorney General and Supervising Regional Counsel for the Illinois Department of Children and Family Services – Office of Legal Services. Deidre is a graduate of Illinois Wesleyan University and holds a certificate of study from the Université de Paris – la Sorbonne. She obtained her Juris Doctorate from DePaul University College of Law.