Perry Anne’s career began in the airline industry three decades ago where she progressed through increasing levels of leadership. There she discovered the field of learning and development, and the seeds for Converge Coaching & Consulting were planted.

As the founder of Converge, she most loves helping technical experts become effective people leaders. To that end she designed Launch! – Converge’s signature manager development program. She finds joy helping people in this program grow in their management skills so they can lead others well.

In addition to Launch! Perry Anne leads team workshops, speaks on organization culture, and coaches clients around the world via video conference.

Perry Anne has a B.A. in Journalism from the University of South Carolina, and an M.Ed. in Human Resources and Organization Development from the University of Georgia.

She lives in Smyrna, Georgia, with three soccer-playing teenagers and a soccer-coaching husband.
