

Vernon Parish School District

Essential Facts:

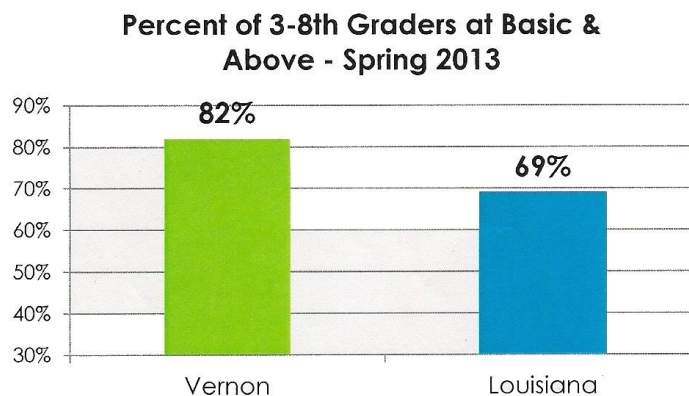

- 10,000 students
- 70% white
- 58% of students are eligible for free or reduced lunch
- 19 schools

District Performance:

- Top four among all Louisiana districts for highest district performance score.
- One of only 9 districts in the state to receive an "A" letter grade. (71 total districts)

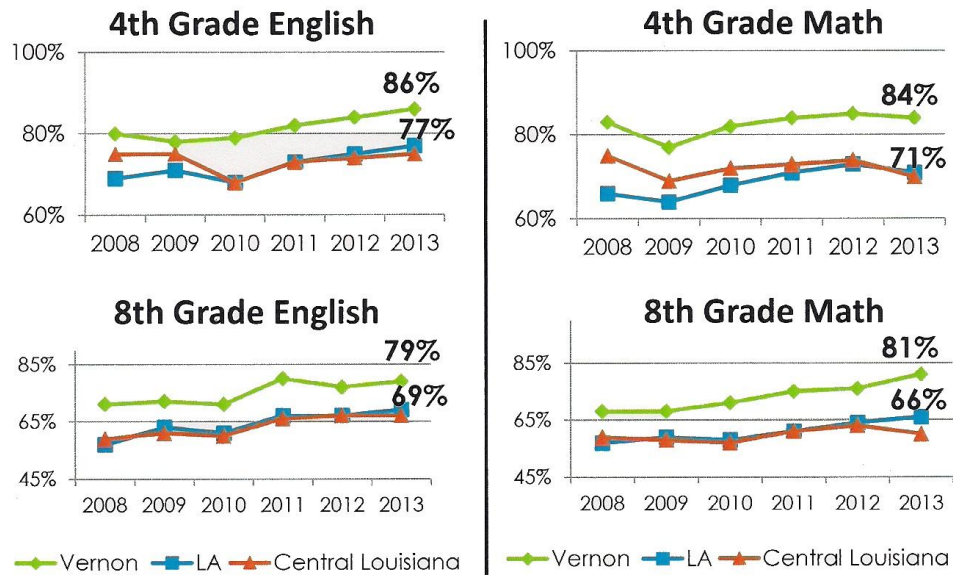

Elementary & Middle School Student Achievement:

- 2013, in the top 5 districts for elementary and middle school achievement. (Only Zachary Community School, Central Community School, Orleans Parish and Plaquemine Parish are higher.)

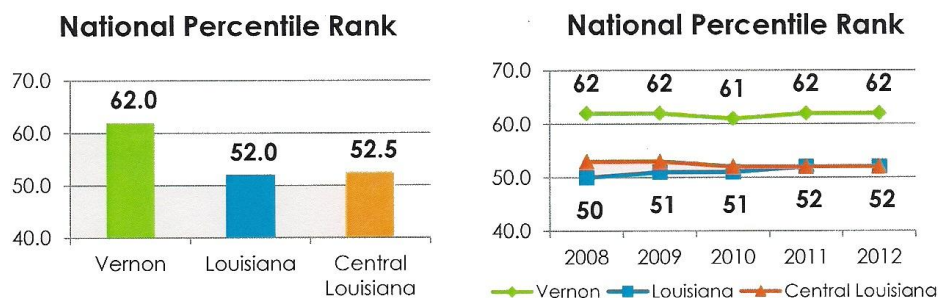

Vernon Parish School District

Percent of Students at Basic & Above on the LEAP Test

Elementary & Middle School National Comparison:

- Tied for 4th highest National Percentile Rank in state. (2011-12)
- Avg. of 3, 5, 6, & 7 grade students are estimated to score better than 62 percent of students nation-wide. (2011-12)

Vernon Parish School District

High School Student Achievement:

- Vernon Parish is in the top 5 districts for largest percent of high school students achieving Good or Excellent on End-of-Course test. (Tied for 1st)
- 81% of Vernon Parish High School students graduate on time.

High School National Comparison:

- Avg. ACT score in 2013 was 19.4. Higher than the 18.9 state average for public schools. (20.9 national average includes private schools.)
- Anacoco High School has the 9th highest ACT score (24.2) in the state and Rosepine High School has the 20th highest (21.2).

