Master Builders Pierce County to hold Construction Trade Expo March 26

Business-to-Business Networking Event

TACOMA, Wash. (March 15, 2019) – Local businesses in the building and construction industry are invited to attend the Construction Trade Expo at Emerald Queen Casino Fife on March 26, from 5 p.m. – 7:30 p.m.

Master Builders Association of Pierce County and the Remodeler’s Council™ are hosting the event to help connect suppliers, sub-contractors and other industry related businesses. Tickets are $10 in advance and $20 at the door. Light appetizers and one drink voucher are included with admission.

“This is a great opportunity for local businesses to expand their network of potential suppliers and sub-contractors before peak season,” said MBA Pierce Executive Officer Jeremiah Lafranca.

The tradeshow highlights companies that specialize in flooring, cabinetry, interior design and much more. Many exhibitors are featuring raffle prizes and giveaways for attendees. The Remodeler’s Council™ is raffling a $1,000 Alaska Airlines gift card for one lucky winner.

The event is located at the Event Center Ballroom, Emerald Queen Casino Fife (5580 Pacific Highway East, Fife, Wash. 98424).
