

Support the Annual Meeting

NCBIO holds the Annual Membership Meeting each Fall to bring 200+ members in the life science community together for networking and informational sessions. Each year the Annual Meeting is supported by a number of partners, and we hope you'll be one of them this year. Below are our sponsorship opportunities and benefits for NCBIO's Annual Meeting. To sponsor or for more information, contact Laura Gunter at lgunter@ncbioscience.net or 919-281-8960.
