

NCBIO the north carolina
biosciences organization
Member Advisory

member advisory

NCBIO Wants you to know

Benefit Concert

November 7, 7:30 pm

A. J. Fletcher Opera Theater
Duke Energy Center, Raleigh

You are invited to a concert to benefit the Columbus Children Foundation. The mission of the Columbus Children Foundation is to accelerate access to the most advanced and effective therapies to treat children diagnosed with ultra-rare monogenic neurodegenerative diseases.

"A Tempo, Il Soldato & Friends" the global benefit tour will make a special stop in Raleigh for a memorable evening in support of the Columbus Children Foundation. World-renowned Spanish artists María José Montiel (mezzo-soprano), Ángel Luis Quintana (cellist) and Laurence Verna (lead pianist) will perform alongside special guest pianist Toni Pearson, Director of the Cerebral Palsy Center at St. Louis Children's Hospital.

They will perform music by Spanish composers, Falla and Montsalvatge, and French music including the favorites arias from Samson and Delilah and Carmen. Quintana will play the coveted Il Soldato, a magnificent Guadagnini cello with a rich history dating back to 1800, and now owned by Fundación Columbus. This crown jewel has been played by one master cellist after the next, passed from generation to generation.

For more information and tickets, click.

Sam Taylor, President
North Carolina Biosciences Organization
P.O. Box 14354
Research Triangle Park, NC 27709
staylor@ncbioscience.net

You are receiving this announcement as part of your NCBIO membership. If you do not wish to receive announcements, please click the unsubscribe link provided below.

NCBIO | PO Box 14354 | Research Triangle Park, NC 27709