NCBIO Member Event of Interest

LaunchBio's Upcoming Event

Larger than Life Science: Deal Us In

Thursday, March 5 4:00 - 7:00 p.m.
Chesterfield Building, Durham

On Thursday, March 5, join LaunchBio and hear the national perspective from the recent JP Morgan healthcare conference and a compelling local story of how a fast-growing business that hatched out of the Chesterfield Building. You can also learn more about federal business grants that give your startup a financial boost without the need to surrender any of your equity.

2020 Investment Perspectives: Insights from the JP Morgan Healthcare Conference
Hear what investors are saying about the ongoing debate over drug pricing and healthcare affordability, predictions for the impact of the presidential election on the industry and how vertical integration will affect the trajectory for startups.

Show Us the Money! Non-Dilutive Funding for Life Science Startups
Learn about programs and services available for life science companies, including some tips on when to apply and how to stand out from the crowd.

Striding Toward Breakthroughs: How a Gene Therapy Deal Came Together for StrideBio and Sarepta
Hear the story of one of North Carolina’s fastest-growing life science startups, how the deals were done, and why these partnerships give hope to patients with a variety of rare central nervous system disorders.

Click here to learn more and to register.

Sam Taylor, President
North Carolina Biosciences Organization
P.O. Box 14354
Research Triangle Park, NC 27709