

Life Science Luncheon & Forum

Reshaping How We Treat Disease

January 31, 2019
11:30 a.m. - 1:30 p.m.
NC Biotechnology Center

There are several cutting-edge therapies that are reshaping the way we treat disease. On January 31, come hear leaders discuss their emerging technologies in gene therapy, cell therapy, gene editing, and nanotechnology.

Speakers will discuss how these therapies work, what companies need to succeed, and pricing/reimbursement models. Confirmed speakers include:

- Michael Dombeck, Vice President of Business Development, Precision BioSciences
- Susan Nichols, Chief Executive Officer, Falcon Therapeutics

Additional speakers will be announced. Sign up now to attend.
