

Virtual Luncheon and Forum

COVID Resilient Environment: Virtual Clinical Trials

November 19
Noon - 1:30 p.m.

Join us online for a luncheon and forum on COVID Resilient Environment: Virtual Clinical Trials on November 19 from Noon to 1:30 p.m. Our panelists will explore how COVID-19 has affected clinical trials, with an emphasis on how trials are successfully going virtual.

We'll hear from a clinical research organization with focus on using digital health, novel trial modes, and patient networks and engagement for how a virtual trial can work practically; an attorney connected to the FDA regulation of clinical trials; a gene therapy company with an ongoing clinical trial; and a large pharma manufacturer with years of clinical experience in both vaccines and treatments.

Panelists include:

- Tina Pagiannopoulos, Associate, Foley Hoag
- Kristen Pappas, Associate Director, bluebird bio
- David Tripi, Vice President, Managing Director, IQVIA
- Speaker from Pfizer

Sign up below using your personalized link. In your registration confirmation, you will receive the GoToWebinar link. You will need to click that link to receive your unique login.

Register Online

Sorry, I'm not able to attend

Click this link and you will not receive additional advisories for this Forum.

Feel free to share this invitation with others in your organization. They will need to contact Amber Niebauer to register.

If you would like to sponsor, please contact our membership director, Laura Gunter.

Sam Taylor, President
North Carolina Biosciences Organization
P.O. Box 14354
Research Triangle Park, NC 27709
staylor@ncbioscience.net